

MY SPOOKY HALLOWEEN TALE

By _____
(your name)

On a _____ October night, _____ and I decided to go trick-or-(adjective) (name 1)

treating. _____ was dressed as a _____ and I was dressed as a (name 1) (noun)

_____. After walking _____ miles, we saw a spooky house in the (noun) (number) distance. We exchanged looks and I exclaimed "Eek! What if there are _____ in there or, even worse _____?" My friend let out a _____ (plural noun) (plural noun) (adjective)

laugh. "Don't be a _____! The worst thing that could be in there is a (noun)

_____. Besides, we need to get more candy! It's almost _____."
(noun) (time)

We quickly _____ toward the door of the house, but before we could (verb ending in ed)

knock, a figure pulled the door open. "_____" said the figure. I was (greeting)

so scared that it felt like there were _____ around inside my (plural noun) (verb ending in ing)

_____. Then, the door opened the rest of the way and I saw that the figure (body part) was actually a person dressed as a _____! The house was not haunted at (noun)

all. It was a Halloween party complete with _____ and _____!
(plural noun) (plural noun)

The person at the door offered some delicious-looking _____. My friend (food item plural)

and I each took one, then waved goodbye and set off for home.

What a _____ night!
(adjective)